The National Youth Arts Trust is a small performing arts charity that exists to widen access to the performing arts for young people from disadvantaged backgrounds - through giving bursaries for music, dance, and drama lessons, running youth theatre projects, and taking children to the theatre, often for the first time.

We are looking for an experienced youth theatre leader to join our team and help run our new youth theatre company in Port Talbot each Tuesday after school at Ysgol Bae Baglan.

Our new youth theatre company in Port Talbot aims to inspire, raise aspirations, unearth emerging talent, make bold and exciting work, be a springboard for further education and engage the young people in the community to develop a life-long interest in the performing arts.

We are seeking inspiring, dynamic, and enthusiastic individuals, who are confident in engaging with teenagers, have experience leading high quality drama workshops and have practical performing arts skills.

The ideal candidates are excellent communicators and motivators, with a passion for theatre making and working with young people and passionate about equal opportunity in the performing arts.

It is an essential role for this charity and offers a unique opportunity to be involved and have influence on a growing arts organisation.

The successful candidates will work in collaboration alongside the NYAT, visiting creative practitioners and our artistic associates, to prepare and devise the content of the workshops and run the session each week.

Duties & responsibilities

- To plan and lead weekly youth theatre workshops for ages 11-19 on Tuesday afternoons.
- Workshops should cover a range of skills including script writing and devising work, acting techniques, physical theatre, improvisation skills, skills in movement and voice, plus confidence building and teamwork; helping the participants explore their creative potential in drama.
- To work collaboratively with the National Youth Art Trust and our artistic associates in planning workshop content, themes and learning outcomes, and help to hire visiting artistic facilitators alongside the administrator.
- To be alert to the needs of the workshop participants, be approachable, take initiative and give pastoral care where required.
- To help prepare the workshop space and take responsibility for the first-aid box, should the need arise to use it.
- To direct, cast and promote youth theatre performances as required.
- To run outreach workshops in local schools.
- To ensure registers and contact details of the participants are carefully managed and updated - communicating with the National Youth Arts Trust administrator as necessary.
- To ensure any monies are carefully managed and petty cash kept safe.
- To accompany the youth theatre on occasional off-site theatre trips.
- To ensure that all sessions are safely managed, and appropriate risk assessment procedures are implemented, notifying the National Youth Arts Trust administrator of any high-risk activity.
- To communicate effectively with the National Youth Arts Trust and our associates and provide regular updates of youth theatre activity as required by the Board of Trustees and the administrator and contribute to youth theatre evaluation meetings.
- To assist the administrator in executing different methods of evaluating the youth theatre project and write an end of term report for the Board of Trustees.
- To be a positive advocate for the work of the National Youth Arts Trust.
- To work within agreed budgets where applicable.
- To follow guidelines, procedures and policies provided by the National Youth Arts Trust, including our safeguarding policy and our equal opportunities policy.
- To undergo first aid training if required.
- To liaise with the National Youth Arts Trust administrator over additional rehearsal space, teaching resources, refreshments or equipment as required.

- To undertake any other duties appropriate to the post as agreed with the National Youth Arts Trust.

This job description is not exhaustive, and the post holder may be required to undertake other such duties from time to time.

The role will require the successful candidate to complete an enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service check and first aid training.
